Deutsche Evangelisch-Lutherische
Kirche zu Honolulu.

The great number of German residents in Hawaii gave rise to the erection on the island of Kauai and in Honolulu a monument to the Lutheran faith. The church in Honolulu is situated on Beretania street and was started principally by gifts from the Hackfeld and Isenberg families who have been connected with the commercial and political affairs of the Islands since 1851.